21. Special meeting held at which time the Building Committee presented their report. Mr J. W. Owen Chalabi presented the Cutts who spoke on cost estimates. Mr Chalabi spoke of loans and Rev Rosenbeyer reported on his findings of same. His report indicated a total cost of $88,000 for the new wing and $16,000 for renovations for present structure and $5,000 for contingencies. The cost was diminished when it was announced that Mr Baum's own architect had submitted his bill for 1,500, which paid in full. The Building Committee recommended that a Capital funds drive be conducted concurrently with our every Member carrying this project and that Mr E. Chatzalonian Church Finance Advisor of Mass. Cong. Conference be called at a retainer contribution of $1,500, to direct drive & advised.

The proposed Bank meeting was held to take care of financial matters. At this time Mr Edward Evans volunteered to conduct drive and thus save retainers fees. The Building Fund Committee accepted this offer.

The Church accepted the report of the Building Committee and recommends this report to the Bank for action.
